

6/17/2006

info@harlemwizards.com

201.271.3600

HARLEM WIZARDS TO APPEAR ON ABC'S MASTER OF CHAMPIONS SHOW

ABC has chosen the best in the World at basketball entertainment to compete in one of the first six episodes of this new show. The first episode is June 22nd. Once the episode with the Wizards is announced it will be posted on the Wizards website, at www.harlemwizards.com

This show has been advertised during the NBA Finals.

Master of Champions is a show where competitors face off with some of the world's most unique talents in this one-hour variety competition to determine who the best of the best is.

The Harlem Wizards will perform a routine that will be judged against the Extreme team, the original slam dunking trampoline troupe.

Performing for the Wizards will be Chris "Mr. Handles" Franklin, and Roberto "The Young One" Yong.

Todd Davis, Wizards President, who has been at rehearsals for the show said, "It could be exciting. We are trying some plays that have never been done before. If the guys can pull it off it will be an amazing and breathtaking performance."

###