HARLEM WIZARDS TO KICK OFF HISTORIC 50TH SEASON TOURING HISTORIC JORDAN

What a way for this storied basketball team to begin the 50th season, by touring Jordan a location with a 10,000+ year history as a civilization.

The Wizards will complete their training camp at Crystal Springs Resort in New Jersey on September 16 and leave for Jordan on September 18th.

The rising professional basketball team, Al-Riyadi, which fell just short of a Championship in the Jordan Premier League, will be hosting the tour.

Secretary General Fadi Sabbah said, “we have had a meteoric rise as a basketball organization and we want receive the Wizards to bring a new level of excitement to our basketball program. Part of our focus is youth development and we are excited about the three days of camps the Wizards will lead. We chose the Wizards, not only for the amazing shows they put on, but also for the warmth and enthusiasm of their players towards the kids, teens and all of the fans.”

The tour will kick off with a three-day camp for kids in Amman. Then the Wizards will spend a day at Petra, which is considered one of the New Seven Wonders of the World as well as having been recognized by UNESCO as a World Heritage site.

The Wizards will complete the week with a show game on Friday the 23rd and the final game on the 24th will be competitive match-up vs Al-Riyadi. The Wizards winning streak, currently 22 years and over 3,500 games will be on the line against Al-Riyadi.
