The Harlem Wizards will be hosting their 2006-2007 tryouts in Paramus, NJ in mid September, on a date to be announced.

The Harlem Wizards have a rich 45 year tradition of providing amazing basketball entertainment.

This can be a great professional opportunity for a high character, exciting player. The Wizards are open to finding future "Wizards" who are male or female, and of any race or nationality.

The Wizards have two teams, and the season ends in 2007 with a Tour of China.

Our mission is to provide awe-inspiring basketball shows that break down barriers, raise funds, and entertain through great hoops and humor.

We play over 200 games per year, nationally and internationally, and the company is continually expanding on those numbers.

We are especially looking for players who not only have flash, but also work well in the team concept.
